Understanding gestational diabetes

This DVD explains to women and their families how to manage their gestational diabetes and what to do once the baby is born. In this documentary-style film, women who have had this condition during pregnancy talk positively about their experiences. It is intended that this DVD will give viewers a better understanding of gestational diabetes.

It is recommended that anyone with this condition also seek help from both a Dietitian and Diabetes Educator.

Diabetes Australia welcomes all feedback about the DVD. Please contact us on the telephone number below with any comments.

This DVD is a multi-lingual resource and comes with the option of selecting from six different languages - English, Vietnamese, Arabic, Mandarin, Cantonese and Turkish.
